Article 20

- (1) Practical course examinations are regulated by the Faculty, Graduate School, Department, or Study Program concerned.
- (2) Examinations for Field Practice course are regulated by the Study Program, Department, Faculty, University, or related unit.
- (3) Comprehensive examinations at the doctoral level are regulated by the Postgraduate Program.
- (4) Thesis examination is regulated in the Final Project Guideline.

Part Three

Assessment Techniques and Final Score Determination

Article 21

- (1) Determination of student's academic abilities includes knowledge, skills, and attitudes/characters that reflect students' competencies.
- (2) Assessment of learning achievements uses various approaches in accordance with competencies that must be mastered by students.
- (3) Final mark in a course uses a scale of 0 (zero) to 100 (one hundred) with a passing grade of 56 (fifty-six).

- (4) Final marks are converted into letters A, A-, B+, B, B-, C+, C, D, and E whose the standard and worth are set as follows:

Table 1. Conversion of Final Marks

Final Mark	Conversion
	Letter	Weight
86 – 100	A	4.00
81 – 85	A-	3.67
76 – 80	B+	3.33
71 – 75	B	3.00
66 – 70	B-	2.67
61 – 65	C+	2.33
56 – 60	C	2.00
41 – 55	D	1.00
0 – 40	E	0.00

Article 22

- (1) Students who have not completed and submitted assignments related to the relevant course are not given a score and the mark K will be on the mark list.
- (2) Mark K can be changed to the proper score if the student has completed and submitted the assignments as referred to in paragraph (1), within a maximum period of one semester.
- (3) If within one semester students are not able to complete and submit the assignments as referred to in paragraph (1), the student concerned is given a mark by the lecturer who teaches the subject, according to the results obtained.

Article 23

- (1) A course mark is the cumulative result of the components of participation in lecture activities, assignments/reports, and test scores that reflect the mastery of students' competency.
- (2) An assessment system to determine the final score uses a Norm Reference Assessment.
- (3) The score recognized for the repeated course is the one listed on the last Study Result Card.
- (4) Courses that are allowed to be repeated are those with a maximum score of B-.

Part Four Grade Point and Study Load

Article 24

- (1) Calculation of semester grade point average (IP) is determined by the number of marks that have been transferred to the score/weight multiplied by the number of credits taken by the students in a certain semester. The example of the IP calculation is as follows.

Table 2. Example of Grade Point Average Calculation per Semester

No	Courses	Credits	Grade		Credits x weight
			Letter	Weight
1.	Biology Education	4	A	4.00	4 X 4 = 16.00
2.	General Biology	3	A-	3.67	3 X 3.67 = 11.01
3.	Research Method in Biology Education	4	B	3.00	4 X 3 = 12.00
4.	Biotechnology	4	B+	3.33	4 X 3.33 = 13.32

$$IP = 62.33/19 = 3.28$$

- (2) If the score has not been uploaded, the credit weight of the course is not used in the Grade Point Average (IP) calculation.
- (3) The maximum study load taken by students is determined by the previous semester's GPA, with the provisions referred to in the following Table.

Table 3. Determination of Maximum Course Load for Level Diploma and Bachelor's Degree

GPA (semester)	Maximum Study Load (Credit)
Greater than 3.00	24
2.50 – 3.00	22
2.00 – 2.49	20
Less than 2.00	18

Part Five
Remedial Program

Article 25

- (1) Remedial programs are given to students who have not met the criteria for achieving competencies in the course.
- (2) The implementation of remedial programs is regulated separately in the Remedial Program Guideline.

CHAPTER VIII
ACADEMIC NORMS

 - (3) Students who will transfer the study program submit an application to the Rector, with the approval from the Academic Advisor, Head of Study Program, and Dean, and a Letter of Approval from the Head of the intended Study Program.
 - (4) Transfer students will receive a new Student Registration Number.
 - (5) Transfer of study programs does not apply to Master's and Doctoral students.

CHAPTER X GRADUATION CRITERIA

Part One Graduation Criteria

Article 28

- (1) Graduation Criteria for the diploma, bachelor's, master's, and doctoral students are determined as follows.

Table 4. Graduation Criteria

Program	Required Completion (Credits)	Minimum IPK	ProTEFL Score	Note
Diploma	110	2.50	400	Score D is 10% maximum with no score E
Bachelor's	144	2.50	425
Profession	24	3.00	-	The maximum lowest score C on a course
Master's	40	3.00	450	The maximum lowest score C on a course
Doctoral	50	3.25	475	The lowest score is B

- (2) Students of English Language Study Program and English Literature Study Program of the Bachelor's Program must have a ProTEFL score or its equivalent of at least 500 (five hundred).
- (3) Students of the English Language Study Program of the Graduate School must have a ProTEFL score or its equivalent of at least 550 (five hundred and fifty).
